

Naming Rules in Javascript

- 1) Name can contain letters
- 2) Name can contain digits, but not at beginning
- 3) Name can contain and also start with _ (underscore)
- 4) Spaces are not allowed
- 5) Javascript is case sensitive
- 6) Reserved keywords cannot be used as names

high level	low-level
1) High level language human understandable language	1) low level language machine understandable language
2) High level language are in alphabets	2) Low level language in 0's and 1's
3) Easier to learn and use	3) More complex and harder to learn

Compiler

- 1) The all code called by compiler at once
- 2) The compiler code run faster than Interpreter
- 3) The compiler generates an output in the form of (.exe)

Interpreter

- 1) The Interpreter compile the code line by line
- 2) Interpreted code run slower than compiled code
- 3) The interpreter does not generate any output